

The Browns Sotheby's Blackontrack Party was held in Queenstown on Saturday 22 August to raise funds for The Snowvision Foundation's capital fund which supports New Zealand snow sports athletes. About 140 people from Queenstown, Christchurch, Wellington and Auckland attended the glamour event at the Dalefield residence of Snowvision Patron, Phillipa, Lady Tait. Approximately $40,000 was raised at the cocktail party. The Formthotics Performance Awards were launched rewarding New Zealand's top world ranked male and female ski racers with cash scholarships.

If you would like to view more photos from the evening, click below brownssothebysrealty.com

Local auctioneer Warwick Grimmer conducting the live auction

Bubbles

(L - R) Maryanne Dickie, Josephine Green, Virginia Fisher, Ross Green

(L - R) Fiona Stevens, Richard Mehrtens, Chairman Snowvision, and Susan Wood

Lady Tait's House in Dalefield

Scott Conway, Julian Brown (Partner Browns Sotheby's International Realty), Donald Hanson and Richard Hanson

Camron Meade, sales associate and Mark Harris, Partner Browns Sotheby's International Realty, Ginny Bush

Alistair Porter, Sir Eion Edgar and Mike Norris

Nils Coberger, NZ National Ski Team coach, and Fiona Stevens auctioning the vintage Parallel item, antique skis and private one day with Nils Coberger.

Fiona Stevens, CEO of Snowvision and Phillipa, Lady Tait

Active bidders for the silent auction

Leanne Malcolm, Janey Turner, Phil Smith

auction action

Mark Vryenhoek, Ian Margan, Lisa Marquet and Greg Turner, golfer

Chris Prebble Christchurch Architect, and David Boyd, Managing Director, Formthotics